

Write your own success story!

If you receive SNAP benefits, the  pilot program can help you get ready for a job with an employer who cares about your success. We will help you build on your strengths by providing resources necessary to gain and maintain employment.

Transforming lives through employment

Our new approach to employment and training will assist you with receiving the right training for the right job. If you are interested in more information:

1. ATTEND an  information session.
2. VOLUNTEER to take part in this exciting new program; selection to participate will be based on a fair lottery-type system.
3. If selected to participate, BEGIN working with a Career Coach to start down a path towards a successful career that matches your interests and skills.

The  program can help you receive industry-specific job skills, earn industry certifications, and work toward your GED or High School Equivalency credentials.

Find out more about the elevate SNAP E&T program today. Participation is voluntary. Your benefits will not be affected if you choose not to participate.
