Norfolk Public Schools' At-Risk Afterschool Meals Program Available to ALL Children Under 18

Norfolk, VA – Norfolk Public Schools' Student Snack & Supper Club is underway! The At-Risk Child and Adult Care Food Program (CACFP) is federally funded and provides snacks and/or supper at participating schools at no cost to ALL children younger than 18. There is no application form for parents or guardians to complete. All afterschool meals and snacks are served in a group setting and offer children and teens good nutrition along with constructive activities, supportive adults, and opportunities to learn and grow.

Visit the School Nutrition section of www.npsk12.com for more information, times, and locations. Children can attend any of the sites listed. Please note that sites, schedules, and menus are subject to change. Each school's Nutrition Manager can confirm site participation.

If you have questions or need help, please contact the Office of School Nutrition by emailing schoolnutrition@nps.k12.va.us, or by calling (757) 628-2760.

In accordance with federal civil rights law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, this institution is prohibited from discriminating on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex (including gender identity and sexual orientation), disability, age, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity.

Program information may be made available in languages other than English. Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication to obtain program information (e.g., Braille, large print, audiotape, American Sign Language), should contact the responsible state or local agency that administers the program or USDA's TARGET Center at (202) 720-2600 (voice and TTY) or contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339.

To file a program discrimination complaint, a Complainant should complete a Form AD-3027, USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form which can be obtained online at: <https://www.usda.gov/sites/default/files/documents/USDA-OASCR%20P-Complaint-Form-0508-0002-508-11-28-17Fax2Mail.pdf>, from any USDA office, by calling (866) 632-9992, or by writing a letter addressed to USDA. The letter must contain the complainant's name, address, telephone number, and a written description of the alleged discriminatory action in sufficient detail to inform the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights (ASCR) about the nature and date of an alleged civil rights violation. The completed AD-3027 form or letter must be submitted to USDA by:

1. Mail:
